

3. Portuguese Language Course (for foreigners)

The Portuguese Language Course is offered on a voluntary basis and in person. It combines levels of training in non-native language learning: A1, A2, B1, B2 and C1.

The teaching of the language is always contextualised by an introduction to Portuguese culture.

Subjects are selected according to students' abilities and needs through Continuous Assessment, which values constant observation of student development and considers not only knowledge acquired, but also participation, interest, attitude and collaboration in the classroom.

- Course lectured by Ana Madureira.
- Target audience: The adult foreign community.
- Schedule: Thursdays, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.
- Location: Alcântara Library.
- Free activity upon prior registration – Max. 25 participants.
